Sponsorship Prospectus

The Dairy Ingredients Symposium is now in its 21st consecutive year and offers exceptional sponsorship opportunities for you to showcase your company to the attendees including product developers, manufacturers, sales, marketing, and others interested in understanding more about dairy ingredients properties, uses, and supply. This event attracts dairy ingredients suppliers, buyers, key innovation leaders and others critical to the business of dairy ingredients. As a sponsor of the Dairy Ingredients Symposium you will enhance your abilities to build key business relationships and insure this program continues to attract the top talent within the dairy ingredients sector. Sponsors will be acknowledged at general sessions, the events they sponsor, in printed program, and program's website.
